

Ozzie Goes to School

By Jocelyn Crabb & Danny Snell

Book Summary

Ozzie lives with his dad in a shipping container by the sea in the Top End of Australia. Ozzie isn't afraid of much. Not the cool dark of the container when the door is closed at night. Not snakes. Not even of the crocodiles that he and his dad watch out for on the beach during the day. But Ozzie is afraid of something. He's afraid of school!

In this delightful story about a boy starting school, Ozzie faces up to his fears of being without his dad in a strange place with new people - and comes up trumps!

Ozzie Goes to School is a book that will resonate with and reassure many young children going to school for the first time.

ABOUT THE AUTHOR

Jocelyn Crabb was born and raised in British Columbia, Canada, and graduated from the University of Calgary with a Masters in Education. Since graduating she has taught in Canada, South America, Mexico and China, Malaysia and the Middle East. In 2008 she moved to Australia where she worked as a teacher trainer in a variety of Aboriginal Communities, before returning to the classroom as a primary school teacher and a teaching principal.

She now lives permanently in the Northern Territory and is the author of several self-published travel books and a blog entitled 'Work and Travel'. As a parent, grandparent and teacher, she loves reading picture books to anyone who will listen. Ozzie Goes to School is her first attempt at writing one of her own.

ABOUT THE ILLUSTRATOR

Danny Snell grew up in Adelaide, and trained at the Central School of Art and the University of South Australia and graduated with a Bachelor of Design (Illustration) in 1992. His first major picture book, Whose Tail Is That? written by Christine Nicholls, was shortlisted the 2000 Victorian Children's Book Council's Crichton Award for first time children's book illustrators. His second book, the best-selling Bilby Moon written by Margaret Spurling, was nominated as a Notable Book for 2001 and shortlisted for the 2001 Kids Own Australian Literature Award (KOALA). Since then he has illustrated The Long Way Home by Emily Rodda, Scary Bear by Tania Cox and Seadragon Sea, also by Margaret Spurling, Crocodile River by Diana Lawrenson, You are My Special Baby by Carol Chataway, and Jeremy, written by Chris Faille, winner of the 2014 CBCA Eve Pownall Award for Information Books.

Danny is also the author and illustrator of Seagull, joint winner of the Wilderness Society's 2016 Environment Award for Children's Literature in the Picture Book Category.
